

Customer Advisory

Date: 13/05/2025

Dear Valued Customers

Subject: Mandatory Inclusion of 9-Digit TIN for Imports Under New Jordan Customs System – Effective 1 January 2025

Effective 01-January 2025, the New Jordan Customs System will require all import manifests classified under "IMPORT" to include the Consignee's a 9-digit Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN). This requirement is part of an initiative to improve data accuracy, streamline customs processing, and enhance integration between shipping lines and Customs brokers.

- This requirement is effective from 01- January 2025.
- The shippers must provide the consignee's Tax Identification Number (TIN) at the time of sending Shipping Instructions.
- Applicable for shipments where Port of Discharge, Final Place of delivery, and Consignee's address is Jordan.
- Not applicable for shipments where Port of Discharge, Final Place of delivery is Jordan, but the Consignee's address is not Jordan.
- For consignments listed as "To Order," Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN) of the Notify party must be provided.
- For consignments to banks, Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN) of the notify party.
